DOUBLE-DIGIT SCORER. PROVEN PRODUCTION.

RahziraH Blocker is an explosive combo guard who put up double-digit scoring numbers in her final collegiate season. A NJAC All-Conference honoree, RahziraH has already tested her game internationally at the Eurobasket Summer League and is ready for her next step.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

RahziraH Blocker is a 5'8" point guard/shooting guard who closed out her collegiate career at Rutgers University-Camden with a standout senior season. A dynamic combo guard, she combines scoring instincts with the ability to run the offense.

In her 2024-25 season, RahziraH started all 25 games for Rutgers-Camden, averaging 11.2 points, 5.2 rebounds, and 1.3 assists per game while shooting 76.4% from the free-throw line. Her strong all-around play earned her a spot on the NJAC All-Conference Second Team.

RahziraH took her game to the international stage in 2025, competing with Team Dublin at the Eurobasket Summer League in Tampa - an early step in what projects to be a promising professional career.
