SHARPSHOOTER. INTERNATIONAL PEDIGREE.

Tre Edwards is a long, athletic wing with a knockdown perimeter jumper. After a winding path through NCAA Division I, U Sports, and the TBL, Tre has found his shooting stroke as a pro – connecting on over 54% of his threes in his most recent season.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

Tre Edwards is a 6'7" shooting guard/forward out of Hamilton, Ontario, whose basketball journey has taken him through Division I basketball at Akron and UMBC, U Sports competition at McMaster University, and now professional ball in the TBL. A long, athletic wing, Tre has developed into a legitimate perimeter scoring threat as his career has progressed.

After stints at Akron and UMBC, Tre closed out his collegiate career at McMaster University in Canada, averaging 4.7 points and 1.5 rebounds per game. He turned professional with the Tri-City Tide (TBL) in 2025 before signing with the Halifax Hoopers for the 2026 season, where his game has taken off – averaging 8.5 points per game while shooting an outstanding 54.8% from three-point range across 8 games.

With size, length, and a developing outside shot, Tre offers real upside as a wing who can space the floor and defend multiple positions at the professional level.
