MULTI-PROGRAM GUARD. TOURNAMENT EXPERIENCE.

Kaylen Evans is a well-traveled guard with experience across four collegiate programs, including NCAA Division I tournament runs and an expanded role in her final NCAA season at Lindenwood.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

Kaylen Evans is a 5'8" guard out of New Lenox, Illinois, who played her high school basketball at Nazareth Academy before beginning her collegiate career at Loyola University Chicago. A versatile point guard/shooting guard, Kaylen has gained experience at four different programs, developing her game at each stop along the way.

Kaylen spent two seasons at Loyola University Chicago (2020-2022), appearing in 16 games as a freshman and 19 games as a sophomore, and was part of Loyola teams that reached the MVC Tournament Semifinals and the WBI Championship Quarterfinals in 2021. She then played a season at Morton College (JUCO) before transferring to Lindenwood University, where she appeared in 27 games during the 2023-2024 season. Most recently, Kaylen has continued her career at Purdue University Northwest.

A steady, team-first guard with Division I, JUCO, and Division II experience, Kaylen brings versatility and tournament-tested composure to any program.
