CONSISTENT. RELIABLE. RIM TO RIM.

Lyric Cole is a steady, high-motor post presence whose rebounding numbers have climbed every season. A four-year Division I contributor turned overseas professional, Lyric brings consistency and toughness to the frontcourt.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

Lyric Cole is a center out of Memphis, Tennessee, who built a steady four-year Division I career at Austin Peay State University and Tennessee State University before turning professional in Portugal. Known for her rebounding and interior scoring efficiency, Lyric has produced at a high level at every collegiate stop.

After a strong freshman season at Austin Peay (6.6 ppg, 5.6 rpg on 62.9% shooting), Lyric transferred to Tennessee State, where she started for three seasons and steadily grew her production - culminating in a 2024-25 campaign where she averaged 7.5 points, 8.2 rebounds, and 1.7 steals per game while shooting 50.9% from the field.

Lyric turned professional in 2025-26, signing with Boa Viagem Angra Açores in Portugal's Divisão I, continuing her career overseas after four productive seasons in the NCAA.
