LOUISIANA ROOTS. INTERNATIONAL PRODUCTION.

Lamonica Plater is a rugged, do-it-all forward who broke out in her first professional season overseas. A double-digit scorer and dominant rebounder in North Macedonia, Lamonica brings toughness and proven international production to any frontcourt.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

Lamonica Plater is a 5'11" forward out of Shreveport, Louisiana, whose collegiate career included stops at Paul Quinn College, Xavier University of Louisiana, and Grambling State University before she took her game overseas to North Macedonia.

In her first professional season with Probasket Akademija in the North Macedonia Prva A Liga (2023-24), Lamonica broke out in a major way – averaging 15.2 points, 8.0 rebounds, and 3.8 steals per game. That well-rounded, high-energy production established her as a legitimate professional forward with a complete two-way game.

A physical rebounder and active defender, Lamonica combines toughness with scoring versatility, making her a valuable frontcourt option for clubs looking for proven international production.
