MVP. LEADER. GAME CHANGER.

Felix Uadiale is a high-efficiency, high-energy wing/forward with elite rebounding instincts and strong field goal percentages at every level. An excellent team player and floor leader with a high IQ who excels in high-pressure situations.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHY

Felix Uadiale is a 6'6", 220 lb wing/forward with a proven track record of efficient scoring and elite rebounding across college and international professional basketball. A high-IQ floor leader, Felix has produced 1,000+ career points and 1,000+ career rebounds, and was the fastest player to 500 career rebounds in 30 seasons at Maryville College.

Felix began his college career at Maryville College (2019-2022), earning USA South Conference 2nd Team honors in 2021 and 2022 and 2019-2020 USA South Conference Rookie of the Year. He then played at Shawnee State University (2022-2023) before finishing his collegiate career at Florida Memorial University (2023-2025), where he was a Top 10 conference leader in field goal percentage and rebounding in back-to-back seasons, won the Sun Conference Championship in 2023-2024, and earned Sun Conference All-Tournament Team honors in 2024-2025.

Felix turned professional in Fall 2025 with Club de Basket San Jose in Arequipa, Peru, where he averaged 21.6 points and 15.0 rebounds per game and earned LBA Superior Division League MVP and Playoff MVP honors. Since January 2026, Felix has played for The Plaza Depiro in Malta's BOV National Men League, averaging 14.0 points and 9.4 rebounds per game while shooting 54.6% from the field - his current and most recent club.
